CHRIS POLLARD

Chris is a well known local historian and musician, who has published several beautiful books about the villages of Portscatho and Gerrans, as well as St. Mawes.

We'll be treated to some insights in to the past and to a couple of singalongs along the way.

MARK HATWOOD

Mark is the founder of Roseland Online, and a well known author. His novella 'Marchello's Date' has been made into a major international film, and tonight he will be reading some of his wonderful short stories.
